

Statements by José Bogas, CEO of Endesa:

“The main purpose of this plan is to provide targeted, effective healthcare relief, which is the primary need. We will also supply institutions and welfare organisations with financial resources that will enable them to keep operating. Lastly, we are making our resources available to the government and autonomous communities in the many parts of Spain where Endesa has infrastructure, equipment and people.”